London, September 27.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 2.

Madrid, September 14.

THE King and the Queen are entirely recover'd of their Fever, and they are still at the Pardo, with the Prince of Asturias; and the Infanto's are at Buen Retiro. Don Rodrigo Manrique de Lara, Count d'Aguilar and Frigiliana, died Yesterday, aged 79 Years, having enter'd the Service of King Philip IV. in the Year 1650, and in the Course of his Life, enjoy'd the several Honours of Vice-roy of Valencia, General of the Flota, Member of the Council of State, and of the Council of War, one of the Junta of the Government, and of the Cabinet Council, and President of the Councils of Aragon and the Indies. In all which Employments, he gave signal Proofs of his Zeal for the King's Service, and was also very commendable for his great Charity to the Poor. The last News we have received by the way of Barcelona, from our Fleet, is, that the Troops were landed in Sardinia, and were incamp'd within Sight of Cagliari, and that the Town had fired their Artillery at them, but with little Success. The Marquis de Rubi Viceroy of Sardinia, had forbid the People under great Penalties, to furnish the Spaniards with Provisions; and 400 Horse were dispers'd in the Country to hinder any Provisions being brought to the Camp. But the Count de Pezuela defeated them, and they being thereby obliged to return back into the City, the Camp is since well furnish'd from all Sides. A Convoy is sail'd from Barcelona for the Fleet, and another is preparing to depart very soon.

Naples, Aug. 31. The 25th Instant, in the Evening, an extraordinary Council of War was held, upon Occasion of the News come from Sardinia, whereby we learn, that the Spanish Fleet had landed their Troops at Cagliari, the Circumstances whereof are not yet very well known. Several Advices say, that they did it without Opposition, and that the Spaniards had made themselves Masters of the City, and attack'd the Castle, into which the Marquis de Rubi had thrown himself with 300 Men, with a Resolution to defend it, altho' he wants many Necessaries for holding out long. Others assure, that the Spaniards met with Resistance at the Attack of the City; of all which we are in great Uncertainty, no Letters being come directly from Sardinia, because the Spanish Fleet seize all the Ships that attempt to come out. But it is known, that two large Tartanes which were carrying Troops and Ammunition thither, have been taken, as also an English Ship freighted from hence with a like Transport. In Prosecution of what was resolv'd in the Council of War, a Visitation has been made of the Fortresses, the Artillery, Provisions and Ammunition, and a German Garrison is put into Castellamare, which belongs to the Duke of Parma. Several Couriers having brought the News of the compleat Victory in Hungary over the Turks, it was proclaimed to the publick by the firing of the Artillery of all the Castles, and the Publick Rejoycings lasted three Days.

Rome, Sept. 7. On the 1st of this Month, the Pope gave Audience to his Ministers, and he received by the Courier of Milan, several Particulars of the Battle with the Turks, and the taking of Belgrade. The same Evening a Courier, who had been sent to Vienna, return'd, and was dispatch'd to Naples, to carry to the Viceroy Orders and Instructions, upon the Affairs of Sardinia. The 3d, the Pope gave Audience to the Cardinal de Schrottenbach, concerning the Enterprize of the Spaniards upon Sardinia, and upon the Means propos'd for hindering the renewing the War in Italy. The same Day an extraordinary Congregation for Waters was held, on Occasion of the difference between the Bolognese and the Ferrarese, which has lasted a long time, with great Strife on both Sides, insomuch that sometimes they have come to Blows. The Cardinals Barberini and Adda, who have been upon the Place to make a View, had given a Sentence, that the Lesser Rhine should be brought into the Po; and the Congregation confirm'd that Sentence, ordering it should be put in Execution. But great Difficulties are found in it, by the Oppositions made by the Ministers of the Emperour and the Republike of Venice, who pretend, their Dominions will receive great Damage by it. On the 4th, a private Congregation De Propaganda Fide, was held in the Presence of the Pope and eight Cardinals, to examine the Demand made by the King of Portugal, of the Right of Nomination to Bishopricks in the East Indies. The 5th, a Courier arriv'd from France, and on the 6th, the Cardinal de la Tremouille had Audience of the Pope, on Occasion of the Vacancy of the Archbishoprick of Bezangon. And this Day the Portugal Ambassador communicated to the Pope, Letters from the Commander of the Portuguese Squadron, written from the Port of Messina, where he was arriv'd, with a Resolution to return immediately to Lisbon. But his Holiness exhorted him to prevail that the Squadron may remain in the Levant to the End of the Campaign.

From the Paris News Letter.

Alicant, Sept. 15. Yesterday arriv'd here 23 Transport Ships under the Convoy of 3 Men of War going to Barcelona; 3 Battalions are embarked upon them, and we have shipp'd on board them also 16 Pieces of Cannon of 48 Pound Ball, eight large Mortars, 1000 Barrels of Powder, and a great Quantity of Corn. There is Advice from Valencia, that Lodgings are preparing for 10 or 12000 Men, both Horse and Foot, who are marching thither from all Parts of Spain.

Genoa, Sept. 15. The Dispatches the Senate have received from the Court of Vienna by an Express going to Milan, contain among other Things, a demand of a Loan of a Million and Half of Livres, to be repaid at the End of the War in Hungary, and Interest in the mean time; as also that the Senate will equip six Men of War, and add to them their Gallies, to sail to Naples next Spring, and that the Charge of this Equipment shall be defrayed by the Governour of the Milaneze. The Senate assembled upon this Occasion, but the great Expences the Republick have been at, to secure their Frontiers, upon the Apprehensions they have been under, from the military Preparations of the King of Sicily, having render'd them the less able to comply with these Demands, there was nothing then determin'd, but it is refered to further Consideration. We hear from Milan, that the Governour of that State, having receiv'd Advice that the Sicilian Troops were in March from all Quarters, and that a large Body of them were advanc'd near the Cremonese; he sent an Express to the Governour of the Mantuan, to throw immediately into Cremona, a Regiment of Dragoons, two Battalions of Foot, and eight Companies of Grenadiers, for the Defence of that Place in case it be attack'd.

Paris, Oct. 2. The King has named the Abbot de Mornay, his Ambassador to the King of Portugal, to the Archbischoprick of Besançon. And his Majesty has given the Abbey of Quimperlay to the Bishop of Rennes.

A Deputation from Fourscore Bishops have waited upon the Duke Regent, to desire him to put an End to the Affair of the Constitution. But his Royal Highness desir'd them to tarry till Christmas.
